

After eight years of service, Rooney is now retired. Rooney is a dog that has been with the police in Ernakulam rural district as part of the investigation of several cases of mishaps. The official name is Senora. She joined the K9 squad of the rural district in 2014. After one year of training at the Kerala Police Academy, she became active. Assisted in cases of theft, murder, missing persons, etc. The service was in the tracker dog category. It was Rooney who played a decisive role in finding a missing person within Koothattukulam station limits. Rooney is a nine-year-old Labrador retriever. The farewell ceremony for Rooney, who is always running briskly and liked by everyone, was emotional. Sub-Inspector Sabu Paul took the salute. The five accompanying dogs also saluted. Afternoon to Thrissur by special vehicle. Now a leisurely life at Vishranti, Kerala Police Academy's 'Old Age Home'. Senior Civil Police officers C.P.Hemand, O.B.Simil, K.S.Abhijith were the trainers.