

A training program was held at the District Police Headquarters to enable the officers to provide timely and proper first aid and bring back to life. District Police Chief Vivek Kumar inaugurated the treatment program which was held in collaboration with Basic Responders.