

In Aluva, one more person was arrested in the case of looting gold and money from a house by a gang posing as income tax officials. Aluva Police arrested Suhara (37) from Nahla Mahal, Koothuparamp, Kannur. She is the wife of Harris who is the accused in this incident. The group conspired with her participation. After the incident, it was Suhara who helped the other accused to go into hiding and passed on the information. With this, the number of people arrested in the case has increased to five.