

District Police Chief Vivek Kumar said that the role of residence associations is very important in preventing crime. He was speaking after inaugurating the meeting of the representatives of the residence associations of the rural district at the district police headquarters. SP said that the police will be with us in any situation where the services of the police are required. Additional SP Jijimon, ASP Anuj Paliwal, DySP P.P.Shams and others spoke. Other top police officers of the district were also present. Various issues of rural district were discussed in the meeting.