

Man arrested for assaulting Pallarimangalam housewife and robbing her of gold jewelery was remanded. Afzal (32), who lives on rent near the Pallarimangalam Shiva temple, was remanded in a case registered at the Pothanikkad police station. The incident took place on thursday afternoon. After covering his face with a cloth, he broke into the house and put a black cloth on the head of the housewife, who was alone, and then tried to remove the earring worth three quarters of a pavan from her ear.