

Ernakulam Rural district police chief Vivek Kumar said that the use of drugs is ruining the future of a generation. He was inaugurating an anti-drug seminar at the district police headquarters. SP said that everyone should stand together to prevent the use and sale of drugs.