

The main accused and the mastermind in the case of kidnapping and beating up the owner of Ayurvedic medicine company in Nelladulla for ransom has been arrested. S. Prakash (41) of Andipetty Kumanantulu, a resident of KVR Nagar, Tirupur, was arrested by the Kunnathunad police from Tirupur. Three people were arrested on the night of the incident. The Ayurveda company called the owner to Coimbatore to discuss business matters, informing him that he was interested in distributing the newly launched medicine in Tamil Nadu. He was then forced into a vehicle and taken to a farm and abused. The gang then called the son and threatened to kill the father if he did not pay a ransom of Rs 42 lakh.
