

Ernakulam Rural District Police taking strict action against illegal recruiting agencies and those who cheat people by giving fake visas. And about such agencies in the context of increasing reporting of such incidents. The district police chief said that the police is collecting information about the individuals.