

Thirty-two people were caught playing with money at the Kothamangalam club and around 1 lakh rupees were recovered from them. On the basis of the secret information received by the police, the gang was arrested last night under the leadership of Inspector Anish Joy. People from different parts of the district came here to play cards.