

Action was taken against 700 people who violated traffic rules during a special inspection conducted by the police in Ernakulam rural district. 142 of them were careless and drunk drivers.