

Child-friendly spaces have been launched in four police stations in the rural district. Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan inaugurated the child-friendly spaces online. An environment has been created for the children to interact with the police officers and the station. New child friendly spaces have been started at Chengamanad, Paravur, Mulanthuruthi and Oonunkal stations. Toys, books, etc. are provided in a specially designed building.