

Ernakulam Rural District Police has tightened checks against intoxicating drugs and fake liquor on the occasion of Onam. In this regard, as per the instructions of the District Police Chief Vivek Kumar, extensive checks and special drives are being conducted across the district. As part of the inspection, the services of specially trained dog squads were also utilized in the area of Aluva railway station and bus stand.