

Eranakulam Rural district police to the side of students with awareness against drug addiction. As part of this, a seminar was held at the district police headquarters with the participation of students, teachers and PTA representatives.

.