

The operation of Alco Scan Van in the rural district to detect those driving under the influence of alcohol has started in Vazhakulam. Kallurkkad Inspector K. Unnikrishnan flagged off. The vehicle is equipped with a modern system that detects the use of alcohol by testing the saliva of drunk drivers. The aim is to reduce the risk of drunk driving.