

The rural district police have completed the fortress of defense against intoxication. Under the leadership of District Police Chief Vivek Kumar as part of the Yodhav project, various projects are being conducted in the district with the participation of the public. There is a strong fight against drug addiction in the entire police station limits of the five sub-divisions.