

A 24-hour control room has started functioning at the rural district police headquarters to deal with the monsoon. The control room will work in connection with the stations in the district. The control room will also work at the stations. An Emergency Response Team has been formed under the leadership of District Police Chief Vivek Kumar to intervene in emergency situations.

.

.